

Table of Contents

Foreword	ix
Methodology	xi
Introduction	1
Overview	2
Native Peoples	4
Settlement Period	7
Fish Habitat	8
Early Calaveras Up-River History (1850-1870)	10
Legislation Proposed	18
Agriculture	19
Irrigation	20
Hydraulic Mining	22
Flood Events 1880-1910	27
River Conditions	31
Resolutions Aimed at the Formation of a Drainage District	34
Diverting Canal	38
Diverting Canal Diagram, 1902	41
Conservation of Calaveras River Water	46
Linden Irrigation District	53
Hogan Dam Completed	55
Calaveras River Flood, Winter 1955	56
New Hogan Dam and Reservoir	56
High and Dry	59
Photographs	61
Calaveras River Area Map	77
Afterword	79
Works Cited	81

Appendices

Appendix A
The Calaveras Basin and its Flood Problem
Report of Engineer W. G. Hunter (1910)	86
Appendix B
Summary of articles that appeared in the Stockton Daily Evening Record of Floods of the Calaveras River, Littlejohn Creek, Duck Creek and Bear Creek from 1899 to 1940, inclusive (1945)	101
Appendix C
Stream measurements on the Calaveras River at Jenny Lind by the U. S. Geological Survey; also The Interpolation of Flowage at Hogan Dam — Flood Control From Report on Cosumnes River Development for Water & Power for the City of Stockton, California, by N. B. Ellery (1936)	122
Appendix D
Southwest Regional Office National Marine Fisheries Service Central Valley Chinook Salmon Bibliography ...	127
Appendix E
Southwest Regional Office National Marine Fisheries Service Central Valley Chinook Salmon Historic Stream Habitat Distribution	187
Appendix F
Oral History Interview with Florence Mitchell, 3/2/2002	195
In Memorium
Leslie Ellen Crow	199
Index	201